RENTAL WAIVER FORM

The Town of Black Diamond will not put utility accounts into the name of a tenant(s) without the written consent of the property owner. The property owner and the tenant(s) must both sign this waiver and return it to the Town Office. The tenant(s) will then receive a copy of the utility bill and the property owner will continue to receive the original. The property owner are solely responsible for any amount owing, including disconnection/re-connection fees. Any amounts outstanding at the utility billing due date will be transferred to the property owner property tax account in accordance with the Municipal Government Act.
